

LEXTA CONSULTANTS GROUP has a history of successful consulting projects in strategic IT management with a focus on IT benchmarking. Over the years, LEXTA has been shaped and guided by over ten years of steady growth, a healthy client structure and an outstanding corporate culture. At the moment, we employ over 50 people in offices in Berlin, Dusseldorf, London and Zurich for leading global clients in every sector. Built from both specialists and all-rounders, our team features people with a wealth of experience in IT and board-level management consulting. Our team is characterised by a friendly and positive atmosphere, trust in one another, support for individual initiatives and respect for our different backgrounds and personalities.

For our offices in Berlin and Dusseldorf, we're looking to fill the following full-time (permanent) position:

Junior Consultant (m/f/d)

What you're looking for:

- ¶ Getting your career started and entering the exciting world of management consulting
- ¶ Working independently as part of an international project team and finding the best solution for your clients each and every day
- ¶ Tackling the steep learning curve and acquiring new knowledge every day with experienced senior partners by your side
- ¶ Opportunities for rapid promotion and the chance to take responsibility for work at the client from the moment you arrive

Your responsibilities will include the following:

- ¶ Advising clients in a wide variety of sectors
- ¶ Creating presentations for the project and client management teams
- ¶ Preparing meetings and workshops, and providing assistance on site
- ¶ Supporting and/or helping to complete project management activities
- ¶ Working to develop and improve LEXTA products

What you'll need to offer to take on this challenging and exciting career start at LEXTA:

- ¶ A college or university degree, preferably in business informatics, business engineering or computer science.
- ¶ IT aptitude and a strong IT background
- ¶ Practical experience in IT operations or theoretical knowledge in the field of information technology
- ¶ Practical experience from internships (including placements abroad) – ideally in a consulting firm – is preferred
- ¶ Problem-solving skills and an analytical mind
- ¶ Mobility and willingness to travel in German- and English-speaking regions
- ¶ You have a high degree of personal initiative and independence, and are a motivated and committed worker.
- ¶ You focus on the customer, are a good communicator and an excellent team player.
- ¶ You have sound skills in MS Office applications
- ¶ You are fluent in both German and English.

We offer you a competitive package of compensation with performance-related components, as well as further options for structuring and further developing this responsible position. You can also look forward to joining a dynamic team that welcomes everyone as individuals, enabling them to experience a positive, inspirational and respectful work atmosphere.

If you like the sound of our offer – and are inquisitive, exceptional and also one of the best at what you do – please send your full CV with all accompanying documents to Denny Rösicke at recruiting@lexta.com.
